An Tir has decided at Kingdom level to raise site fees. The Summits has decided it does NOT feel that 'we' can support raising site fees at this time for branch level events (they will not be required to raise them individually) Site fees for Principality level events will be raised as such: Individual Adult-$20/Youth(10-17)-$10/Family cap-$50 Those branches that host Principality Championships will be asked to raise site fees for THAT event. (Archery/Equestrian)

Corporate REQUIRES Kingdom to have a MINIMUM three year running budget
Principality to have a MINIMUM two year running budget

(IDEAS) Raise money to change the branch split.(60/40) It has been opined that it is not fair, as the branch does all the work.

>Temperance suggested a 'sunset' clause be put into place- re-address after a certain amount of time to see if attendance betters or worsens or if monies hold steady.

Fund Raiser monies raised for Travel Fund DO NOT go into the General Fund (operating/administrative monies)

There was a broken

Pavilion pole.

Captain of the Horse- HL Anna von Engleberg. Excited that southern Summits will now host both Hocktide and the new Hastilude. Art of War will be in the beginning of Oct. 2013.
