

Summits Curia – Spring Coronet 2010 (3/21/10)

...after Domesday, some branches have not sent in to exchequer – Tymberhaevne – issues sent for NMS, took long to get cash.

Websites on branches need to be updated.

Chamberlain – unable to get down to this event.

Chronicler – not here – has computer now. Need to start up “Echoes” again.

Lists – Lists is in financial need. Coronet yesterday. Finngal expressed interest in applying, open for more than 3 months. Congratulations to Finngall, new Lists officer.

Rapier – Only one branch marshal – rapier community resuming.

Archer – William Christofore – Asked whether anyone had purchased scales. Had list then $50 worth of backdrops etc. for this event. He will purchase scales.

Youth Combat – open

Equestrian – Sir William – Terra Pomaria now has an equestrian officer, gearing up for Hocktide.

Scribe – financial – purchase list Sharon did last year has been lost, cannot find any files. Plan is to come up with a new plan.

Herald – No idea what happened to budget request – cannot find them, list of books she would like to purchase.

Minister of Children – open.

Provost of Pages – financial – needs to turn in Chatelaine – Most officers have responded – one has not responded in a year. Duana is sick – needs reimbursement from 11th Night. Had some interested persons step up yesterday – have made enormous working breakfast.

Chirurgion – One mentor chirurgion in the Summits, in major _____ since last event, and in financial need.

Arts & Sciences – Eight out of nine branches reported early and on time. Summits dropped from first place stats for 89%. Challenge of minimum of five artisans taking part in artisans’ social. Incentive to branch that provides most artisans and coverage. There is a track at Hocktide focusing on non-horse A&S like beer-making. Request for track at Consorts’ Tea to focus on retinue. Wants more deputies.

Webminister – Doesn't need money and has deputy.
