Tain Bo

Táin Bó
September 5-7, 2014

Glyn Dwfn
Selma, OR

Does your shire boast the most ferocious fighters, the most talented artisans, or the most dedicated volunteers? Find out at Táin Bó! This friendly shire war will have many activities, including: Heavy, rapier, cut and thrust, youth armored combat, archery, thrown weapons (including atlatl!), A&S competitions, bardic, period cooking and encampment contests, and many opportunities to serve. The great thing about Táin Bó is that almost everything you do at the event earns your shire points toward victory. If you are a member of a Barony, you serve an important role as highly sought after mercenaries. Shires who bid for the help of your artisans, fighters, or service-oriented members may be the ultimate victor because of your assistance! Táin Bó is built upon the 3 pillars of our fair society, and all 3 pillars will be awarding equal “battle points” to the victors in those areas (along with participation points awarded to all entrants). The shire with the most battle points wins and will take home a beautiful banner to fly proudly for 1 year! Please visit the An Tir event page for our website and more information.
